

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	No Answer
12. The school provides support and services for students with identified or special needs.	20	7			1
13. The school provides my child with opportunities to develop respect, responsibility, and problem-solving skills.	14	12	1		1
14. The relationship between my child and his or her teacher(s) is one of mutual respect, warmth, and caring.	19	8			2
15. I feel welcome at school.	18	9			1
16. Special activities such as Spirit Days, Geography Bee, Spelling Bee, Curriculum Expo and theme days build school pride and positive feelings.	20	5	1		2
17. The teacher(s) responds to my child's individual needs.	17	8	1		1
18. The school provides a challenging and positive learning environment for students.	17	10			1
19. The leadership in the school is effective and is shared by parents, teachers, and the administration.	15	12			1
20. The school maintains high standards and expectancies in schoolwork and behavior.	16	11			1

Responses to the following:

1. In what area of the school life at Robert L. Craig does your child experience joy or success?

- My child loves to go to school. He loves his teacher Miss Salamone.
- My child loves to go to school. She loves her pre-k teachers and always wants to be with her friends. Great foundation for future.
- Marco loves all of it! Loves gym, music, computers, library, art and all the activities.
- Reading
- Making gains in reading and math. Getting involved in sports programs.
- Math, reading, science and Spanish.
- My child enjoys art, library, gym, computers and regular everyday classes. He loves going to school everyday.
- Library, gym, G & T, art enrichment and music. (2)
- Language Arts, math, library, gym and reading.
- In all areas.
- Enjoys classroom projects.
- Gym (2)
- Art projects (2)

2. In what areas of school life does your child struggle or feel unsuccessful?

- Struggles with speech but improving everyday. (2)
- Writing.
- Homework.
- Don't think there are any. (2)
- He struggles with participating as a group and by himself, but his teacher is working with him and is seeing improvement.
- Math, physical education.
- The reading workshop was designed to addressing the needs of students with specific strengths and doesn't allow the teachers the flexibility to modify instruction to include all students.
- None/
- Music
- Reading